

CYCLONE GOES WRONG

Big Black Bursts Blood Vessel Racing.

WITH seven races and a walk over the track for the purpose of saving entrance money, the second day's racing closed the meeting under the auspices of the Honolulu Jockey Club Saturday, a meeting which has been of the very finest and which, barring accidents, would have been productive of the very highest class racing ever seen here. As it was there were records broken, wins by a head, and one dead-heat race, while on the other hand there were disclosures of fine form and some upsets for the talent which displayed the true running of the entries.

Of Saturday's events perhaps the most startling error of the players of races was picking Mollie Connors to make a winning against Del Vista. The animal carried a lot of stable money and some of the best posted men on the track speculated upon a winning of at least one of the two races in which the little animal was entered. But it was not to be, for the Walker mare was too fleet, and could not be enticed when making strong bids for the races in the stretch. Another was the winning of old Boswell, Jr., the name horse of the Lihue ranch. Although 19 years of age, this old pacer went out and beat a field of three, cutting out the King entries, Madeline being looked upon as having a good chance.

The sport was marred by the breaking down of Cyclone, the black wonder, which was uncovered on the first day by Quinn. The horse was being warmed up before the races started, when upon letting down the check at the return to the stables, the blood began to run from the animal's nostrils. There had been a burst of blood vessel and the danger of an accident through loss of blood or straining the horse, caused him being taken from the two races in which he was entered and being kept in the stable during the day. The horse was his race on Wednesday, but there was little money wagered upon the event, while there was quite a bundle of money in sight for his owners and followers in the event of his having won the 2:14 class race Saturday.

Another feature which caused a loss of interest at the close of the day, was the scratching out of the last race, the mile for runners, of Nullah, which was followed by the withdrawal of Nullah, and Carter Harrison had to be walked over the track alone to save entrance. The weights for the race were changed by the executive committee before the race, and without the knowledge of the judges, and this caused such a feeling against making the run at the penalties that Weller was found to have brought up lame after the bruising one and one-half miles, with its hard finish, and so was scratched out. McKenzie had Nullah in at 104 and Harrison had 120 pounds in the original placing, but when the horse was put in at 116, Nullah was declared out, owing to the fact that the owner was not consulted, and so the race, as such, was off. For a time there was a chance that there would be an exhibition mile, the Jockey Club being willing to give $100 and a cup to Harrison if he went the mile better than 1:42.5. But the horse could not be got to go at top speed without a running mate, and so the exhibition was off.

The first race of the day was the five furlongs. Mollie Connors was made favorite at from 2 to 5 to 1, but after a good start, and a lead of a furlong, Del Vista took the Ballentine mare off her feet, winning in a drive down the stretch by three lengths. Time, 1:03 4-5. Rejected also ran.

With Cyclone out of the 2:14 class, Wayboy and Abidine had a duel. Wayboy was favorite at the post, with much Abidine money placed over night. Abidine could not be kept on his feet and Wayboy, driven by the former owner, won the two heats, the first being in 2:26 1/2, the other 2:23.

The mile and a half found only Weller and Cronje at the post. The start was made after some trouble. Weller acted badly as usual and this time it was his salvation. Cronje was worn out somewhat by the scoring, and though he ran a consistent race could only reach Weller's throat latch in a drive down the stretch. The time, 2:42. Weller was not fast, but the pair ran like a team most of the way, the local horse not trying to draw away until at the half, where McAllister began his drive. The most he could do was to open two lengths at the turn, which the Hilo animal closed up down the straight.

The fourth race, for Hawaiian bred animals, was full of interest, though the victory of the old Kauai horse was hollow. It took a long time to get away the field of four, but the way in which Boswell, Jr., opened out showed the speed was still there. Madeline would not act and Edith R. was not up to the pace. Leahi was seemingly short of work and though the horse did well enough to take second place he was never really dangerous at any stage. In the overnight betting Boswell could be had very cheap and there was plenty of money against in the stands, but he found some supporters at that time. The heats were done in order, the sorrel leading all the way. The time was 2:34 1/2 and 2:39.

The fifth race found Mollie Connors and Del Vista out again, and some speculators bet on the idea that Del Vista had run herself out. This proved fallacious, for the Walker mare won in 1:16, with lengths to spare, drawn up at the wire.

With Cyclone out of the 2:24 it looked like Sambo, and even money was the rate at which the black shavetail went against the field. The first heat demonstrated that the horse has in him a few heats at a good rate, though

THIRTEEN TRUE BILLS

A Week's Work of Maui's Circuit Court.

MAUI, June 14.—The Second Circuit Court has been in session all the week with the exception of the two holidays on the 11th and 12th. The grand jury was discharged by Judge Kalua on the 9th. They brought in thirteen true bills and recommended that a man be stationed at the railroad crossing near the Wailuku Sugar Co.'s mill to warn people of the approach of sugar trains, and also suggested that the high flume which crosses the road in the vicinity of the mill should be covered to prevent pieces of cane from falling upon the heads of passers-by. Both the flume and the railroad crossing are thought to be places of danger to the public. The trial jury probably has still two weeks' work ahead of it.

MAUI'S SPORTING TRIUMPH.

All Maui people who have sporting blood in their veins are rejoicing because of the overwhelming victory of the Maui Athletic Association nine over Hilo at baseball at Weller Park on Kamehameha day. The score of 18 to 2 tells the story of how much Hilo was outplayed by Wailuku. During the ninth inning Cornwell of the M. A. A.'s, at first base, while leaping up to catch a high ball, was bowled over by the base runner and badly injured at the hip. If it had not been for this accident the score would have been one less for Hilo.

As this game was the only celebration of the 11th in Central Maui, a great crowd of people assembled at Weller Park, filling the grand stand to overflowing.

After the game a fine luau was given by the Athletic Association to the Hilo baseballists at the residence of T. B. Lyons. During the feast, at which more than 100 guests were present, speeches were made by L. M. Baldwin, president of M. A. A.; by Captain W. H. Cornwell, Jr., and by Messrs. Brown and Easton of Hilo. During the same day, at Lahaina, the Morning Stars of Wailuku defeated the Lahaina nine by a score of 18 to 12.

Though the Hilo people are desirous of having a Wailuku nine visit Hilo on July 4, the Wailuku athletes prefer a contest on their home grounds with some crack Honolulu club. They have now a fine ground, a new grandstand, and are playing "good ball," and naturally wish to contest with some of the skillful players of the capital. There is reason to believe that a Maui nine might win the baseball championship of the Territory.

MAKAWAO LITERARY SOCIETY.

The June meeting of the Makawao Literary Society will take place Friday evening, the 20th, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hair, Hamakua-poko. The operetta, "Barber of Bath," will be given again.

MAUI'S FAIR COMMITTEE.

The selection of Messrs. A. N. Kepokai, D. D. Baldwin and R. C. Searle as a committee to have charge of Maui exhibits to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition is decidedly a good one. A. N. Kepokai is the attorney for the H. C. & S. Co. and can well represent the sugar interests; D. D. Baldwin is the owner of the largest pineapple plantation on the island and an authority in educational matters and on Hawaiian land shells and ferns, and R. C. Searle is a partner in the largest coffee plantation on Maui and the manager of an extensive cattle ranch as well. Thus are most of the local enterprises well represented.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Saturday night, the 7th, at Paia, and Tuesday night, the 10th, at Hamakua-poko, the Indian jugglers, Mahomet Khan and his brother, gave exhibitions of their skill to large audiences. These two Hindus have visited Manila, Japan and various places in Hawaii, and are now on their way to the mainland.

By Wednesday's steamer Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith and U. S. District Attorney Brockton arrived on Maui and have been the guests of H. A. Baldwin of Hamakua-poko. Mr. Smith returned to Honolulu per Mauna Loa on Friday. The evening of the 11th an "at home" was given by Mr. C. B. Wells at his Wailuku residence. A large number of Wailuku and Kahului people were present and much enjoyed dancing on the new lanai.

Miss Cora Culbert of California is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. M. Church of Kahului. She is the twin sister of Miss Carsey Culbert.

Today Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Zumwalt and four children depart for Honolulu, intending to take the Sonoma for the Coast. Mr. Zumwalt will engage in some mercantile business in California. By the steamer Tampico, that sailed from Kahului on the 12th, Mr. and Mrs. William Coffee and two children of Spreckelsville departed for San Francisco. They will join Mr. W. J. Lowrie in Porto Rico. Mr. and Mrs. John Decoto were also passengers by the Tampico.

Last evening the Makawao Debating Society discussed the question, "Resolved, That the Leper Settlement Should Become a Federal Institution." No vote was taken on the merits of the arguments submitted.

The Maunaloa Seminary will hold its closing exercises on Wednesday, the 18th.

Hon. H. P. Baldwin will be present at the wedding of his son Arthur, which will take place on the 17th, at Glenville, O.

Dr. R. I. Boote of Wailuku is recovering from his illness.

Miss Maria Forbes of Honolulu is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. O. Aikea, of Makawao.

COWBOYS IN FINE RACES

Waimea Makes the Holiday a Feature.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

WAIMEA, June 12.—The great Hawaiian holiday was duly celebrated at Waimea, Hawaii, with a race meeting, the usual event of the year. Waimea is the town of the big Parker ranch, where the finest horses and the "real" cowboys of Irish and American descent can be found. The jockeys in the brilliant colors of the Lindsey and Purdy clans compared favorably with the professionals on the Honolulu track in riding, taking advantage and using strong and expressive words in the English-Hawaiian language spoken on all our local tracks. Colonel Sam Parker, the lord of the manor, was in Honolulu and missed the fine exhibition of the horses from his ranch. The weather was calm and somewhat sultry, owing to the recent antics of Madam Pele, and a goodly crowd was present, evidently enjoying themselves in true, noisy Hawaiian fashion.

The cowboys were on their good behavior, owing to the strict temperance rules of the ranch management, and the gathering had the resemblance of a Sunday school meeting, which would have greatly surprised the progenitors of the inhabitants of what once was "wild" Waimea. The following is the program:

Race 1—Thomas Lindsey's grey horse Prince defeated Sam Purdy's buckskin, Hamiel. Time, 27 seconds.

Race 2—Sam Spencer's bay pony defeated Dan Darg's grey mare Mary and Sam Purdy's sorrel Claudine, the latter not getting steam up in time.

Race 3—The starters were Thomas Lindsey's Keonaula, Sam Purdy's Fitzsimmons, George Lindsey's Nioi, and James Fay Lindsey's Halekalewa. Keonaula was a handsome winner in 29 seconds and took the glory and the purse.

Race 4—In this race the Lindsey family was well represented, the following horses starting: Sam Purdy's Lalakika, J. F. Lindsey's Wahineau, George Lindsey's Mikilun and Thomas Lindsey's Uue. The last mentioned won, time 28 1/2 seconds, and the Lindsey clan cheered with a will.

The fifth race had four starters. They were J. T. Lindsey's Upalioali, W. Spencer's Maunahi, George Lindsey's Panawa and Sam Purdy's Mokee Island. Panawa won in 29 seconds. Who ever heard of "Mokee Island" racing, anyhow?

The starters in the sixth race had names which would make any ordinary horse weary. They were Kupu'e brown Ueu-ou-ke-ko, A. Kaana's buckskin Hikiiki-ai-lau, Amo Koki's brown Unknown, and W. Lindsey's sorrel Joe Snow. The "Indian-who-eat-medicine," which is the translation of Kaana's horse's name, gave the other starters their medicine and won in 27 seconds.

The event closed with a match race for $— a side, which was won by Thomas Lindsey's Prince in 28 1/2 seconds. The real amount is omitted as gambling is strictly prohibited in Waimea.

After the meeting the crowd dispersed. The clans gathered at Akona's hotel, where a banquet was held, and dispersed at a late hour after having celebrated the eleventh in a true Hawaiian fashion. A few of the boys who objected to Japanese "sport" in general, and to some of that race at the hotel especially, were accommodated by the Sheriff with sleeping quarters in a public building until their excessive "steam" had evaporated.

The exhibition of the horses at the track shows the excellence of Hawaiian bred horses, which in size and speed are especially adapted to the climate and to ranch work.

EDMUND NORRIS.

WIRELESS SYSTEM WAS INSPECTED

The wireless telegraph station at Wailaie was inspected yesterday morning by S. S. Dickinson of the Commercial Pacific Cable Co., F. A. Schaefer, C. M. Cooke, F. M. Swamy, J. B. Castle, E. E. Paxton, H. A. Isenberg, E. F. Bishop, W. M. Giffard, W. H. Hooks and C. J. Hutchins under the direction of Manager F. J. Cross. The system was operated between Wailaie, Molokai and Lahaina, and the visitors expressed themselves pleased with the exhibition. The party started from the Hawaiian Hotel at 9 o'clock in surrises.

At the telegraph station Manager Cross made a detailed statement of the workings of the system. The instruments for receiving and the new coherent were examined and found satisfactory. A message for a downtown firm was received from Molokai while the party was present. H. A. Isenberg sent a message to Bookkeeper Barkhausen of the Hackfeld company at Lahaina, asking how many bags of sugar were on hand at the Pioneer Mill. A quarter of an hour later a message came saying that the bookkeeper was in the plantation somewhere and could not be communicated with. Mr. Giffard sent a similar message to Olowalu and a reply was received in six minutes. The quickness with which messages were sent back and forth was commented upon favorably. There was no operator at Mahukona and therefore no communication could be had with Hawaii. It is stated by the manager, however, that the station there was receiving messages in about a week and that a private line of telephones will be established to Hilo and other points, to insure prompt delivery of the messages.

necessitated during the evening of the 10th, John Fleming of Alexander & Baldwin of Honolulu made a flying visit to his parents at Grove Ranch on the 7th.

Weather—Very warm, volcanic, winds, light and southerly; the thermometer registered 96 degrees in the shade at Paia Plantation office during the 7th.

F. AUSTIN'S MISSION

His Plans Suffer a Noteworthy Change.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—The last is found, Franklin Austin is still in the flesh, and in San Francisco. His plans are changed. He will not sweep over the country in his planned campaign against the "Missionary" party, nor will he endeavor to drive the Doleites over the Fall. A great wave of conviction has come over him. Whereas he had intended to loose the hounds of forest speech and denounce the "Missionaries" from school to breakfast, he now will write a book.

Calmly and dispassionately he will set down the political story of Hawaii, point the moral, and adorn the tale with half-tone pictures of leading Home Rulers, toss in, mayhap, a poem or two, or a word painting about the hours of the islands, and publish all these facts and fancies in a neat volume at 50 cents per volume.

"It has been always a debatable question with me," said Austin yesterday, as he lit the initial leaf of a fat book of cigarettes, "as to whether my forte was oratory or writing. True, in speech I am able to fortify the uttered word with personal magnetism and power of gesture, while with the pen I am limited to the effect I can create by the mere printed sentence. This lacks the flashing glance of the eye, the subtle intonation and the force of the whole corpus which I make the most of when on the rostrum, but still to one skilled in the artful use of written language, there is perhaps an even greater and more permanent impression made by the logical and sequential argument received through the eye alone.

"As I informed you a fortnight ago, I had planned to lecture in all the important cities and towns of the country. I had engaged a manager and was to begin my tour in San Jose. The manager was no good. He went to San Jose but spent his time swimming instead of arranging for my reception and lecture. I went to San Jose and spoke for 10 minutes in the Unitarian Church."

"But the San Jose papers said nothing about your appearance," I interposed.

"Yes, they were so busy with local politics they overlooked me. But it doesn't matter as I have determined to change my scheme. I had started out on a very radical course, but I have had several talks with friends—Republicans of California, who are very rich and influential—and they have persuaded me to change the campaign I had intended to make would injure the Republican party."

"But you are not a Republican?" "I'm not a Republican? I'm the strongest and most influential Republican in Hawaii. My whole life has been given up to the Republic. I have made two campaigns for it in California when I had my chain of papers in Southern California, and I have always been a consistent believer in the great principles enunciated by Lincoln and McKinley. Even now I am planning making of the Home Rule party into the real Republican party."

"It is wrong to suppose that I would not have gone to Washington in time to see President Roosevelt before Dole arrived there, if I had thought I could have prevented his being endorsed. Old Franklin is a man of many resources, and I would have managed to arrive on time if I had thought it would avail. I did express surprise at Roosevelt's action on my arrival here but I know now it would have been useless to try to have Dole ousted. It would be like butting against a stone wall. I have nothing personally against Governor Dole and would not injure him. It was only my deep consciousness and patriotism that urged me to advise Roosevelt not to retain him in office."

"By the way, I met Dole in the street car awhile ago. I entered the car and sat opposite him. At first he ignored me, but when we went outside to smoke a cigarette he could not avoid noticing me. I saluted him and asked after his health. He was very chilly and gave me a really glassy eye. I said nothing more, as I felt that if he did not appreciate the broad spirit which actuated me, he was the loser and not I. This is not like Dole, for he usually does not carry the asperities of political feelings into his private life. I felt that I had done my Christian duty and could not blame myself."

"I understand that Dole believes and has said that the Republicans are growing in strength in Hawaii, and that there is a very good chance for them to elect a delegate to Congress. This is so palpably foolish I don't care to dilate on it. Robert Wilcox will be elected to Congress sure, and at least two-thirds of the Senate and House will be Home Rulers. We are organized more strongly than ever."

"Who's we?" asked I.

"Why, the Home Rule party."

"Where's your Republicanism?" "There you are," said Austin, "in your course, unseeing way, the Home Rulers are the majority in Hawaii. The majority here are Republicans; a fortiori and by the eternal, the Home Rule party is the real Republican party of Hawaii. I shall contend in my forthcoming book that the Home Rule party should be allowed to reorganize the Republican party of Hawaii, and to have the sole right to that name. Mind you, not to have the Republican party organized for them, or for any haoles to try to boss them. We will accomplish this some day."

"My book will contain about 20,000 words and will be neatly but not gaudily bound. I will send one to every editor in America and will put them on sale in Hawaii."

"But you won't make much money by giving them away and selling them only in Hawaii," said I.

"I am not after money. I am enunciating principles. If I aspired for money I would have devoted myself to commerce and not to literature. I have always held that brain power is the superior of money. When my big scheme failed in the eighties, I resigned all but for gold. In the last few days I have been thinking that perhaps I might make a million or two just to show these rich Hawaiians who jest at me that I can amass wealth if I direct my talents that way. I wouldn't make it in sugar either. How? I don't care to tell. Suffice it to say that I do desire, I may write 'millionaire' after my

SHALL WE DISPUTE

The Opinions of Scores of Our Fellow Citizens

Residents of Honolulu, like other American citizens, in making an investment want to be sure of getting the worth of their money. They want to know all the ways and wherefore, and in a direct ratio to the value of the investment they burrow and ferret until satisfied with the collateral. Take an instance in the realm of proprietary articles. If we know of a friend who has been cured we have some faith in the preparation; if we know of two or three our faith increases. If the cures reach scores all well known citizens, anyone who still maintains that there is nothing beyond ordinary merit in the said preparation, can safely be left to the care of his fellow taxpayers. If he wishes to pick a quarrel with them on the question of their judgment and veracity, he has ample opportunity in Honolulu to do so. Begin with this case.

Mr. H. H. Smythe, of Inter-Island S. S. Co., this city, writes to tell us that he was afflicted with a lame back for a number of years. "Ascribing the cause of this to the kidneys and hearing about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, I got some of them at the Hollister Drug Co.'s store. They relieved me so much that I am perfectly satisfied with the result of having taken them, and can recommend the pills to others, suffering from backache."

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are becoming popular in Honolulu because they are always endorsed by Honolulu people.

Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50 cents per box (six boxes for $2.50) or will be mailed on receipt of price by the Hollister Drug Co., Honolulu, wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Drivers Out of Date

CHICAGO, June 6.—The packing houses of Chicago are preparing to introduce more modern methods into their system of meat delivery for city trade. They will use the railway lines. During the recent strike of the teamsters, the scheme it is said, was given a thorough and successful test. Once in effect, the packers will require but one-fourth of the present force of drivers. So antiquated is the use of teams and drivers, the packers say, that they placed each of their distributing depots in the city near a railroad switch on some line connected with the Belt system. But until forced by the strikers to use the railroads the packers had not attempted seriously to carry out their plan.

"My book will be out in a few weeks. I am living at the Russ House with my wife, child and mother-in-law, and am writing. I will not disclose the name of my publisher. I am not at liberty. However, let me make it plain that my book will not be filled with glib. It will be a forceful exposition of political causes and effects in Hawaii, and I expect it to revolutionize thought on Hawaii in this country. The Democrats would like me to lecture against the missionaries as they could make capital of the fact I would elucidate. But I am too good a Republican. I shall go East soon, probably, and may begin a lecturing tour there and come West. Let my countrymen know though that their best interests are always in my mind and heart. The times are pregnant with possibilities, and Franklin Austin's career is opening broadly. Let the wealthy classes of Hawaii have no fear that I shall rouse a storm against them. I shall not. My life is devoted to my cause. Aloha!"

READ IT IN HIS NEWSPAPER.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, O., U. S. A., is a constant reader of the Dayton Volks-Zeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife says to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable Balm is for sale by all dealers and druggists.
